

Midnight Boulevard

The Showband everyone is talking about!!

Midnight Boulevard can cater for for every type of function including weddings, Barmitzvahs, dinner dances, Masonic and rotary festivals, summer balls and parties as well as corporate functions. And, In addition to the six permanent members of the band, Midnight Boulevard can also include additional musicians and vocalists as required. So for the bigger function, a full sized Big band that includes a Brass section and backing vocalists is available, 15 performers in total.

With style, energy, enthusiasm and amazing musicality, Midnight Boulevard is THE show band for every type of function and occasion. Combining an eclectic mix of musical styles and sounds, Midnight Boulevard generates an excitement and spectacle ensuring that each performance is truly memorable, thrilling experience.

For more information, please contact Allan on: (01992) 716960

Or visit our website:
www.midnightboulevard.com

So let's imagine that you want to plan your perfect event, but can't decide how it will all work! You are torn between a live band or a disco and you may even think that you will need both!

Midnight Boulevard will work with you to establish the full itinerary for your event. You're guests will be sitting down to eat so you will want some background music – No problem! The band will either perform a dinner set live or, if you prefer, a selection of suitable background music will be provided via the 5.1 surround sound PA system.

If your evening is themed, i.e 60's etc. Then the band's multi plasma screens will show images and movie clips accompanied by music of the period – It's all in the price!! You can even have a bespoke slide show providing you can provide a storyboard and pictures!

First dances, specified musical material and essential pieces of music will be performed when and where you specify it. The musical sets can be structured by you, Don't Like Motown? Don't have it then! Want to see Elvis Presley perform his last Vegas set complete with jumpsuit? Of course! How about Jake and Elwood Blues arriving at the venue chased all the way by the Police? Consider it Done!!

All you need to remember is that your event will fly past and will be a guaranteed feast of non – stop entertainment!!

It doesn't matter how large or small your function, event or party is, the most important issue for your guests is to be entertained and enjoy fabulous memories of their time spent in your company!

Midnight Boulevard fully appreciates this fact and have built their shows with total entertainment as their key objective. That is probably why their reputation and, indeed referrals from their clients are maintained at such a high level.

Midnight Boulevard's clients demand more than just a list of well known songs performed, they want to be taken on a musical and visual journey encompassing the ambience and spirit from the time when the songs were first released. Perhaps they want to laugh at the bands comedy or relive the decades when Elvis was king, The war years in London during the early forties. The antics of the Blues brother's live, on stage.

Midnight Boulevard's clients don't just book the band, they work with the band to create an evening that is a cocktail of cabaret, non – stop music and a trip to the theatre, ensuring that their event is perfectly planned and faithfully executed!!

You won't be disappointed!!

